Subcommittee Update
Enterprise Risk Management Update

• Current Risk Rating: Moderate

• 3 risks closed since last report (Oct 2022 public meeting):
  – Establishing and implementing internal controls
  – Establishing and implementing an ERM program
  – Providing annual ethics training and financial disclosure reporting

• 28 remaining open risk items in the agency risk register (started the program in FY 2021 with 32 risks)

• Future risk assessment will consider agency Strategic Implementation Plan for the FY2022-2026 Strategic Plan
Audit Update

• IAW Strategic Objective 3, “Ensuring effective governance and results across the AbilityOne Program,” closing open audit recommendations is a high priority for Commission

• Of 86 total open audit recommendations, Commission staff has completed action on 37 (43%) and submitted for review

• Of remaining open audit recommendations, strategies have been developed to implement and reach closures
  – Short-term strategy: Identify and submit supporting documentation for open audit recommendations with high probability for closure by 30 Sep 2023 – estimate 16 open recommendations (~33%)
  – Long-term strategy: Develop Strategic Implementation Plan metric targeting no less than 10% closure rate each fiscal year

Subcontracting and Opportunities with Industry
Background: Subcontracting
Commission Subcontracting Perspective

- Historically, the Commission discouraged or sought to minimize subcontracted work on AbilityOne contracts
- Consistent with the Strategic Plan, subcontracting and other opportunities to work with industry may increase integration, leading to “Optimal Jobs”
- The Commission supports prime contract language encouraging AbilityOne subs, and subcontracting by AbilityOne NPAs to expand employment opportunities
- Today’s panelists will share ideas for and approaches to subcontracting and other ways to collaborate with industry that may be replicated in the AbilityOne Program
Panelists

- Justin Crosby, Strategic Programs Division
  Department of Energy

- Ken Crum, Chief Operating Officer
  ServiceSource

- Lawrence Melton, President
  The Building People

- Shannon Satterfield, Director of Professional Services
  IFB Solutions

- Jim Murdaugh, AbilityOne Key Accounts Manager
  3M Government Marketing–Sales, 3M Corporation
